

Tamara and Chad collect money outside parent's store for Liberian children.

Chad and Tamara Benson Collect Money for Children of Liberia

On New Year's Eve, Chad and Tamara Benson set up a small table and collected money to send to Sister John Joseph for her school in Liberia. The children of Eagle Bay Sunday School had been corresponding with Sister J. J. and she had sent pictures and described her life there.

New Year's Eve seemed to be a good time for these children to launch their appeal and the good people of Eagle Bay were generous with their change. The money was turned over to the Convent of the Child Jesus in North Vancouver and the funds used for school supplies and buying seeds for family gardens at the school in Kakata, Liberia.

Jeannette Hester

Easter 1992.

Back row Tamara Benson, Malcolm Setter, Daniella
Front- Hope Setter, Amanda Copeland,
Chad Benson, Melanie Setter.